

2011-08-29

- (1) Chapter One
 - (1.1) Sociology: Perspective, Theory and Method
 - (1.2) "Without knowledge we are like dandelion fluff blown about by the wind" Auguste Comte Early 1800
- (2) What is Sociology
 - (2.1) The systematic study of human society
 - (2.2) The Sociological Perspective is looking for general patterns
 - (2.3) Peter Berger 1963:
 - (2.3.1) Seeing the Strange in the Familiar
 - (2.3.1.1) What is something curious we do in America?
 - (2.3.1.2) What's strange about it?
 - (2.3.1.3) What social forces – beliefs values norms and what structural qualities are involved?
 - (2.3.2) Seeing general patterns in the behavior of Particular people
 - (2.3.2.1) What does being a man or being a woman mean in our culture?
 - (2.3.2.2) What does it mean for me?
 - (2.3.2.3)