

- (1) Robert K. Merton (1910-2003)
  - (1.1) Manifest functions
  - (1.2) Latent functions
  - (1.3) Social Dysfunction
- (2) Structural Functional Review
  - (2.1) Auguste Comte and Harriet Martineau
    - (2.1.1) Social Stability
    - (2.1.2) Social Interdependence
  - (2.2) Herbert Spencer
    - (2.2.1) Social Darwinism
  - (2.3) Emile Durkheim
    - (2.3.1) Social Integration/Regulation
    - (2.3.2) Anomie
  - (2.4) Robert K. Merton and
  - (2.5) Talcott Parsons
    - (2.5.1) Society as a system
- (3) The Social-Conflict Paradigm
  - (3.1) Inequality
  - (3.2) Uneven distribution of power/resources
  - (3.3) Conflict and change
    - (3.3.1) Race and conflict
    - (3.3.2) Gender and Power Differences
- (4) Karl Marx (1818-1883)
  - (4.1) Conflict between social classes
  - (4.2) Basis – Control of production
    - (4.2.1) Bourgeoisie (owners; exploiters)
    - (4.2.2) Proletariat (workers; exploited)
  - (4.3) Conflict resolved through
    - (4.3.1) dialectic process and revolution
    - (4.3.2) capitalism to socialism to communism
- (5) William E. B. DuBois (1868-1963)
  - (5.1) Harvard University – First Doctoral Degree to African American
  - (5.2) Sociology – Solve Social Problems
  - (5.3) Founder of NAACP
- (6) The Symbolic-Interaction Paradigm
  - (6.1) Society – everyday interactions
  - (6.2) Micro-level orientation
- (7) Max Weber (1864-1920)
  - (7.1) Verstehen – Understanding /insight
    - (7.1.1) Understand in context
    - (7.1.2) Subjective meaning